Pardee Board of Directors names 2011 officers

(Hendersonville, N.C.) The Pardee Hospital Board of Directors has announced its officers and new board members for 2011.

William G. Lapsley, president of William G. Lapsley & Associates, will serve as chair. William L. Moyer, retired attorney, will serve as vice-chair. He replaces outgoing vice chair Peter Goodfield, M.D., cardiologist with Hendersonville Cardiology. John Bell, M.D., a retired physician and businessman, will serve as secretary. J.W. Davis, president of Carolina First, will serve as treasurer.

The Pardee Board of Directors has also announced three additions; James Horwitz, M.D., Carolyn Justus and Charlie Messer. James Horwitz, M.D., is currently serving as the Pardee Chief of Staff and is a pediatrician with Rainbow Pediatrics in Hendersonville. Carolyn Justus is a retired state representative. Charlie Messer is a county commissioner and small business owner. Messer holds the Henderson County Commissioner appointed seat on the board.
