Pardee to host Chamber Business Afterhours Thursday, March 24

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Pardee will host Chamber Business Afterhours on Thursday, March 24, from 5:30 – 7 p.m. in the newly renovated cafeteria, The Orchards, located at 800 North Justice Street.

The Orchards will be serving appetizers and beverages and Pardee's interim CEO, Jerry Maier, will speak. Attendees are welcome to submit their business cards for a raffle that will held at the end of the event.

Business Afterhours is a monthly event that brings local businesses together to network and make lasting business relationships. Each month, a different business promotes their location, products, services and sponsorship by hosting a Business Afterhours.

If your business would like to host a Business Afterhours, please call the Henderson County Chamber of Commerce at 692-1413.
