Gail Clary, M.D., recertifies Pulmonary Boards with American Board of Internal Medicine

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Gail Clary, M.D., a pulmonologist with Carolina Lung and Sleep Physicians, has recertified her Pulmonary Boards with the American Board of Internal Medicine. This is considered the highest standard in internal medicine.

The American Board of Internal Medicine is a non-profit, independent evaluation organization and one of 24 specialty boards that make up the American Board of Medicine Specialties.

This is Dr. Clary's third recertification with the American Board of Internal Medicine and includes completion of ABIM-specified continuing education modules, practice assessment by colleagues and patients, and successful completion of a six-hour exam. Dr. Clary is also certified with the ABIM in Internal Medicine, Critical Care Medicine and Sleep Medicine.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall,
