McEntire begins inpatient wound/ostomy care at Pardee

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Haley McEntire, BSN, RN, CWCN, CCCN, has joined Pardee Hospital as an inpatient wound/ostomy nurse. After working as a staff nurse on a medical/surgical unit, she has decided to make wound care her specialty.

McEntire received her bachelor's degree in Biology and Nursing from Western Carolina University. She also attended The Emory University Wound, Ostomy and Continence Nursing Education Program and is nationally board-certified in wound and continence care. She has also completed a hyperbaric medicine training course in Columbia, SC.

"Haley is a very delightful, caring and competent nurse. Her experience in wound care will provide excellent patient centered care to our patients," said Michelle Jones, Nursing Director of Two West General Surgery and The Comprehensive Wound Healing Center at Pardee.
