Free Program Offered for Female Cancer Patients at Pardee Health Education Center

(Hendersonville, N.C.) In partnership with the American Cancer Society, the Comprehensive Cancer Center at Pardee will offer the “Look Good, Feel Better” program on Monday, Oct. 3, from 10 a.m. – 12 p.m. at the Pardee Health Education Center, located in the Blue Ridge Mall.

Look Good, Feel Better is a free workshop dedicated to helping female cancer patients cope with the appearance-related side effects of chemotherapy and radiation treatments. A cosmetologist will discuss makeup techniques, skin and nail care, and the use of wigs, turbans and scarves. Each participant receives a free gift of full sized cosmetics donated by The Cosmetic, Toiletry and Fragrance Association Foundation and the National Cosmetology Association. Registration is required by calling 1-888-790-WELL (9355).

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall,
