Pardee introduces Mom2Mom: a social network for nursing mothers

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Pardee introduces Mom2Mom: a social network for nursing mothers, lead by nationally certified lactation consultant, Joyce Maybin, RN, IBCLC, of the Pardee Center for Women's Health. Maybin is also nationally certified in inpatient obstetrics and is a member of the International Lactation Consultants Association.

The group will meet monthly to discuss breastfeeding topics and techniques. Mom2Mom will offer new mothers a way to connect with each other and give support.

The first meeting will be held on Thursday, Mar. 3, at 10 a.m. in the conference room of the Pardee Hendersonville Family Health Center Medical Office Building located at 709 North Justice Street in Hendersonville. Babies and children are welcome. Mom2Mom will continue to meet at the same time and place on the first Thursday of every month.

The group is free and open to all new mothers. Registration is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL.
