Local dietitian to discuss nutrition and breast cancer

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Cheryl Tuttle, MHS, RD, CSO, LDN, an oncology certified licensed dietitian with Pardee Hospital, will discuss how nutrition is linked to the occurrence and reoccurrence of breast cancer at the next Breast Friends Forever support group meeting on Thu., July 23 from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. at the Pardee Health Education Center.

The Breast Friends Forever support group is for women who currently have breast cancer or have previously been treated for the disease. The group is free and open to the public. Dinner will be available to attendees at the beginning of the meeting for a cost of $5. To RSVP for the meal, call Kristy Capps at 828-698-7334.

The Pardee Health Education Center is a unique community outreach program of the hospital that provides an array of services from health fairs and screenings to seminars and support groups. Last year, the center provided more than 10,000 free and low-cost screenings to community members.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall,
