Local orthopedic surgeons to discuss minimally invasive anterior hip replacement

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Amal Das, M.D., and Brian Seng, D.O., orthopedic surgeons with Hendersonville Orthopaedic Associates will present “Minimally Invasive Anterior Hip Replacement,” at the Life Enrichment Center located in the Lelia Patterson Center on Wednesday, Oct. 13 from 2 until 3:30 p.m.

The surgeons will discuss the relatively new technique of anterior hip replacement. This procedure is performed without detaching muscles and tendons from the hip, leading to a faster recovery. They will discuss the pros, cons and misconceptions associated with this procedure. Time for questions will be included in the presentation. Registration for this free presentation is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL (9355).

Dr. Das graduated from the Indiana University School of Medicine and completed his residency at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine. He is board certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and a fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. Dr. Das completed the first study in the United States on glucosamine and chondroitin sulfate for the treatment of arthritis, and received national recognition for his work.

Dr. Seng received his degree in osteopathy from Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kirksville, Mo. He completed his internship and residency at St. John Oakland Hospital in Madison Heights, Mich. Dr. Seng completed his fellowship in adult hip and knee reconstruction at Joint Implant Surgeons in Columbus, Ohio. He began his medical career during volunteer trips to Calcutta, India and Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

Drs. Das and Seng are two of the physicians associated with the Pardee Hospital Center for Joint Replacement, which is dedicated to the treatment and rehabilitation of patients undergoing hip, knee and shoulder replacement surgery. They both completed a fellowship in hip and knee replacement with Joint Implant Surgeons in Columbus, Ohio.

The Lelia Patterson Center is located southeast of the I-26 exit 44 at 1111 Howard Gap Road in Fletcher, N.C.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall, home care services, a rehab and wellness center, a midwifery program, various family
