Pardee Foundation names 2009 officers

(Hendersonville, N.C.) The Pardee Hospital Foundation recently announced its slate of officers for 2009.

Todd Webb, CPA, will serve as president. Webb previously served as the Foundation's vice president of board development and treasurer. Mary Jackson is the new vice president of staff and board development. She previously served as president of the Pardee Hospital Auxiliary and chair of the Foundation's Leadership Giving Society.

William F. Gold, Jr. will serve as vice president of public relations. Gold joined the board in 2005 and is a senior financial advisor with UBS Financial Services. Lynn Matykiewicz will serve as vice president of development. Matykiewicz is a retired financial analyst with the BP Corporation and previously served as chair of the Foundation's Women Helping Women committee.

Michael Wollinger, vice president with First Citizens Bank, will serve his first term as secretary. He co-chaired this year's "Tournament of Champions," which raised more than $78,000 to purchase equipment for Pardee's Cardiology

Department. Greg Gibson, president of Mountain 1st Bank, will serve as treasurer.

New members joining the Foundation Board for a three-year term include: Donalee Wermeister, community volunteer; Jim Wert, member of the Flat Rock Council; Mark McCollough, M.D., radiation oncologist at Pardee Hospital; and Ryan Harman, financial counselor with Edward Jones & Company.

Retiring from service on the Foundation Board at the end of 2008 were Grace Vineyard, Nancy Kussrow and Carol Adams.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall, home care services, a rehab and wellness center, a midwifery program, various family and internal medicine practices, and an urgent care facility.
