Pardee Hospital Board names 2010 officers

(Hendersonville, N.C.) The Pardee Hospital Board of Directors recently announced its slate of officers for 2010.

William G. Lapsley, president of William G. Lapsley & Associates, will serve as chair. Joseph W. Smith, III, the retired senior director of operations at Arvin Meritor, Inc., is the outgoing chair. Jeff Miller, president of Miller's Laundry and founder of Henderson County's HonorAir, will serve as vice chair. He replaces outgoing vice chair Peter Goodfield, M.D., cardiologist with Hendersonville Cardiology. John Bell, M.D., a retired physician and businessman, will serve as Secretary. J.W. Davis, president of Carolina First, will serve as Treasurer.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall, home care services, a rehab and wellness center, a midwifery program, various family and internal medicine practices, and an urgent care facility. For more information or to find a physician, call 1-866-790-WELL (9355) or visit www.pardeehospital.org.
