Local physician to offer free presentation on chronic pain

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Edward A. Lewis, M.D., of the Carolina Center for Management of Advanced Pain, will discuss the latest treatment options for chronic pain in a free presentation at the Pardee Health Education Center on Thursday, March 25 from 3 until 4 p.m.

During his presentation, Lewis will provide the latest information for the treatment of chronic pain. He will offer time for questions after the presentation. Registration for this free presentation is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL (9355).

Lewis graduated from the University of Texas Medical School and completed his residency at Memorial Hermann Texas Medical Center in Houston, Texas. He is board certified in anesthesiology and pain medicine, and serves on the Pardee Hospital medical staff.

The Pardee Health Education Center is a unique community outreach program of the hospital that provides an array of services from health fairs and screenings to seminars and support groups. Last year, the center provided more than 10,000 free and low-cost screenings to community members.
