Free Program Offered for Female Cancer Patients

(Hendersonville, N.C.) In partnership with the American Cancer Society, the Comprehensive Cancer Center at Pardee Hospital will offer the “Look Good, Feel Better” program on Monday, Aug. 2 at the Pardee Health Education Center from 10 a.m. until Noon.

Look Good, Feel Better is a free workshop dedicated to helping female cancer patients cope with the appearance-related side effects of chemotherapy and radiation treatments. A cosmetologist will discuss makeup techniques, skin and nail care, and the use of wigs, turbans and scarves. Each participant receives a free kit of full sized cosmetics donated by The Cosmetic, Toiletry and Fragrance Association Foundation and the National Cosmetology Association.

Registration for this free workshop is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL.

The Pardee Health Education Center is a unique community outreach program of the hospital that provides an array of services from health fairs and screenings to seminars and support groups. Last year, the center provided more than 10,000 free and low-cost screenings to community members.
