Pardee surgeon to discuss varicose veins

(Hendersonville, N.C.) Daniel Timmerman, M.D., a surgeon at Pardee Hospital, will host a presentation about current treatment options for varicose veins on Mon., Mar. 8 from 1 until 2 p.m. at the Pardee Health Education Center.

Varicose veins can be painful and uncomfortable. If left untreated, veins may worsen over time. Many of the options discussed in this free presentation are currently covered by insurance. Registration is required by calling 1-866-790-WELL (9355).

The Pardee Health Education Center is a unique community outreach program of the hospital that provides an array of services from health fairs and screenings to seminars and support groups. Last year, the center provided more than 10,000 free and low-cost screenings to community members.

Pardee Hospital is a not-for-profit community hospital founded in 1953. The main hospital is licensed for 222 acute care beds and is the second largest employer in Henderson County. The hospital has several locations separate from the main campus, including an adult day services center, a health education center in the Blue Ridge Mall, home care services, a rehab and wellness center, a midwifery program, various family and
