

800 N. Justice Street
 Hendersonville, NC
 (828) 696-1000
www.pardeehospital.org

Pardee is a not-for-profit community hospital in Hendersonville, N.C., founded in 1953 and licensed for 222 acute care beds.

- 7,793 people received care during an inpatient stay at the hospital
- 10,590 surgical services and endoscopic procedures performed
- 535 joint replacement surgeries at the Pardee Center for Joint Replacement
- 32,225 visits to Pardee's Emergency Department
- 25,956 visits to Pardee Urgent Care
- 402 babies born at Pardee
- 1,033 patients treated by Adult Psychiatric Services
- 630,130 diagnostic and treatment procedures provided in radiology, radiation therapy, rehabilitation, respiratory therapy, sleep medicine and the laboratory
- 10,663 screening and diagnostic mammograms performed at the Elizabeth Reilly Breast Center
- 424 cancer patients treated at the Comprehensive Cancer Center
- 19,109 visits to patient homes by Home Care professionals
- 5,331 days of participation at Pardee Pavilion Adult Day Health Services
- 43,374 visitors participated in health and wellness programs, screenings and support groups at the Pardee Health Education Center

Based on Fiscal Year 2009

The second largest employer in Henderson County.
 Almost 1,300 employees.

More than $65 million in salaries and benefits.

Approximately 242 physicians representing 40 medical specialties and 85 allied health areas.

More than 265 active Auxiliary members contributed 34,000 hours and $318,280 to Pardee Hospital and a healthcare scholarship program.

Pardee Hospital and almost 700 of its associates contributed more than $136,225 to benefit United Way organizations and Pardee Foundation during the annual employee giving campaign, "Pardee Choice." Pardee and its committee received an award for the "Largest Employee Campaign" for the third year in a row.

Pardee

Hospital Foundation

The Foundation raised over $2.1 million and provided $1,066,407 to the hospital to support mammograms for uninsured women, orthopedic unit upgrades, chapel renovations, biometric scanners for pharmacy, rehab equipment, OR microscope, digital radiography suite and day surgery waiting room improvements.